These Hotels And Destinations Around The World Created Mixtapes To Make You Feel Like You're Actually There

With everyone stuck at home, wishing they were in a more exotic spot than their living room, hotels and destinations around the world are curating playlists featuring tunes aimed to transport wanna-be guests there virtually.

The playlists, available on Spotify, range from Icelandic Eclectic to Caliente Caribe to Tropical Island Vibes.

So, until you can get there in person, put on your headphones, close your eyes and let these songs – and your imagination – take you away.

Playlist: Hedo Hustle(r) - Nude Edition or Hedo Hustle(r) - Prude Edition, giving you the option to pursue pleasure your own way but always with an island vibe.

“For 38 years we’ve been ‘home’ for so many and we wanted to share a piece of that with those who have been so loyal to us over the years and are awaiting their time to return. It’s also a great playlist for anyone that wants to just listen and be inspired. We have two playlists - one more symbolic of our mild side with relaxing tunes, and one that is sexy and wild. And we’re not stopping there - we are planning to release additional playlists dedicated to our famous nightly themes: rockstar, glow party, and karaoke lists are on the horizon. Stay tuned.” - Kevin Levee, General Manager
